"CIVIL SERVICE ACT."

December 30th, 1949.

HIS HONOUR the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to rescind Order in Council No. 2151, approved December 11th, 1945, as amended, governing the manner in which sick-leave may be granted to Provincial Government employees, and to order that under the provisions of the "Civil Service Act" the following regulations be made in substitution therefor:—

1. During the first working-year of service, sick-leave with pay may be granted to a total of six working-days.

2. Further sick-leave with full pay may be granted on the following cumulative basis: During the second working-year and thereafter for each succeeding working-year of service, sick-leave with pay may be granted to a total of eighteen working-days; provided, however, that sick-leave shall accumulate at the rate of twelve working-days for each working-year of service up to a maximum of one hundred and fifty-six working-days.

3. Subject to section 4, sick-leave credits shall be computed by the Civil Service Commission from the date from which the employee has been continuously employed on a full-time basis; provided, however, that all periods of sick-leave which have been taken subsequent to January 1st, 1935, shall be deducted from the accumulated sick-leave credit of each employee concerned.

4. Where an employee who has resigned from the Service returns, and his superannuation account is reinstated, he shall be credited with his former service when computing sick-leave credits, such credits to be subject to deductions for sick-leave granted during such previous service.

5. Where an employee was granted leave of absence to join His Majesty's Forces, the period of such absence may be included when computing sick-leave credits.

6. Where sick-leave is necessary, it shall be granted up to the accumulated amount which the employee has to his credit, after which, if additional leave is necessary, it shall be without pay, but once the employee returns to the Service, if he has already exhausted his sick-leave credit, he shall begin to accumulate further credit at the rate of twelve working-days for each succeeding year of service to a maximum of one hundred and fifty-six working-days. If the employee should return to service not having exhausted his accumulated sick-leave credit, he shall again accumulate sick-leave at the rate of twelve working-days per annum in accordance with section 2, and, in addition, shall carry forward the unexpended portion of his sick-leave credit remaining after his return to duty.

7. Except with the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, the maximum amount of sick-leave which may be granted under these regulations is three hundred and twelve working-days.

8. Where an illness can be attributed directly to exceptional circumstances surrounding the duties and conditions of employment of an individual employee, and where the sick-leave credit of such employee has been expended, the Commission, notwithstanding the provisions of sections 1, 2, and 6, may recommend to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council the granting of additional sick-leave with pay.

9. Sick-leave may be granted only on the production of satisfactory evidence of the inability of the employee to perform his duties, in the form of a written declaration from the employee in cases where the absence has not exceeded three working-days (see C.S.C. Form 4, in Appendix), and by way of a certificate from a qualified medical practitioner where the absence has exceeded three working-days, such certificate to be submitted within seven days of beginning of absence (see C.S.C. Form 5, in Appendix).

10. Where an employee makes application for sick-leave on account of illness sustained or injury accidentally received in the performance of his duties and not caused by negligence on the part of the employee, such application being properly supported by a certificate of a qualified medical practitioner, sick-leave may be granted to a total of one hundred and fifty-six working-days, and, except on the recommendation of the Commission, no deduction from accumulated sick-leave credit shall be made for such sick-leave; provided, however, that such employee shall not be entitled to or receive salary in the amount of any award granted to, or on behalf of, the employee by the Workmen's Compensation Board. Sick-leave in addition to that granted under this section shall be charged to the accumulated sick-leave credit of the individual concerned, and any recommendation for further sick-leave with pay under this section must receive the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

11. (a) Where an employee who has served in His Majesty's Forces in the Great War of 1914-18 or the Great War of 1939-45 is granted sick-leave for the purpose of attending a medical board or receiving diagnosis or treatment for a non-pensionable disability in a military or other authorized hospital, such sick-leave may be granted in accordance with sections 1, 2, and 6 of these regulations.

(b) Where an employee who has served in His Majesty's Forces in the Great War of 1914-18 or the Great War of 1939-45 is granted sick-leave for the purpose of attending a medical board or receiving diagnosis or treatment for a pensionable disability in a military hospital or other authorized hospital, sick-leave may be granted to a total of one hundred and fifty-six working-days on the following basis:—

(i) Where the employee is required to attend a medical or other board and is not carried on treatment strength in a military hospital or other authorized hospital, the sick-leave may be granted as follows:—

If the employee is in receipt of remuneration from the Provincial Government at a rate of $5 per working-day, or less, the sick-leave shall be granted without pay:

If the employee is in receipt of remuneration from the Provincial Government exceeding $5 per working-day, he shall be entitled only to that portion of his remuneration which exceeds $5 per working-day.

(ii) Where the employee is carried on treatment strength in a military hospital or other authorized hospital, he may be granted the sick-leave with full pay; provided, however, that all pay and allowances received in excess of his permanent disability pension and allowances shall be credited to the particular vote concerned.

(iii) No deduction from accumulated sick-leave credit shall be made for the sick-leave granted under this section.

(iv) Sick-leave in addition to that granted under this section shall be charged to the accumulated sick-leave credit of the individual concerned.

12. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other regulation governing sick-leave, where an employee has a history of tuberculosis prior to entry into the Service, and has a recurrence of the disease, he shall not be eligible for sick-leave with pay beyond that which he has accumulated under sections 2 and 6 of these regulations, nor beyond that to which he may be entitled under section 11.

13. Where an employee is absent for illness, the office concerned must be immediately informed, with proper explanation of the cause of the absence.

14. Absences occasioned by illness are subject to the final approval of the Civil Service Commission.

15. All absences must be certified on the back of salary vouchers by the authorized signing official.

16. For the purposes of computing sick-leave, Saturday shall be considered as a full working-day.
